

Rinri Project Newsletter. Phoenix Edition, Volume 4, No. 3 Special Issue: Mystery of the Stone for Beginners Introduction: Law of Time and Evolutionary Ascent

The soul is cramped by limited identity of outer ego-self - name, family, nation, religion, ideology. The soul needs to break out of that altogether before 2012. The soul needs to identify with the fifth dimensional higher self. How can this be brought about? The soul needs a new evolutionary technology to advance itself. This is the purpose of the Seven Years of the Mystery of the Stone.

The Seven Years of the Mystery of the Stone is the complementary revelation to the Seven Years of Prophecy. This revelation is part of the Great Telektonon, itself a function of The Law of Time. The Law of Time has been revealed on this planet for the Closing of the Cycle. Making conscious what was unconscious, the Law of Time reveals the limitations of the prevailing spiritual and mental world order, while supplying the remedy. This remedy consists of a new harmonic standard, the Thirteen Moon/28-day synchronometer and its accompanying New Time Peace Plan, as well as a reformulation of the human mind, the Cosmic History Chronicles.

The Thirteen Moon New Time synchronometer represents entry into a series or layered sequence of exercises known as the practices of the synchronic order, including: the Telektonon Game of Prophecy, Rinri Project, Dynamics of Time, 20 Tablets of the Law of Time, 7:7::7:7 and the Elder Futhark weekly practices. The purpose of all of these exercises is to reengage the mind in the perfection of the fourth dimensional harmonic order. The ultimate goal of all of these is to develop a cadre of Earth Wizards whose understanding and application of an essentially internal psychotechnology and a new science of time will enable them to eject and/or project the circumpolar rainbow bridge in 2012. In fact this Newsletter is an integral part of the job of facilitating this entire transformative process.

We are now at the end of a major four year cycle which occasioned the Phoenix Edition of this Newsletter. This will be the final issue of the Phoenix Edition. Beginning next year, Blue Crystal Storm, there will commence the third series of the Rinri Newsletter, the Mystery of the Stone Edition which will run for seven years, 2004-2011. The last four years have been called both the Campaign for the New Time and the Harrowing of Hell. While hell on Earth may still be raging on Blue Crystal Storm, for the true believers in the codes of the synchronic order, this year will initiate entry into a new order of reality, Middle Time and the Mystery of the Stone, the beginning of the evolutionary ascent out of hell.

During this last four year cycle, two matters of major importance occurred which must be taken into consideration: First, the spread and establishment of the calendar change movement as an irreversible phenomenon - victory of the Campaign for the New Time; and second, the growing realization of our spiritual inadequacy in the face of the tremendous changes now going on in the world. We are at a point where we must spiritually evolve - now. More intensely spiritual exercises are required of us as we enter the final stage of the entire cycle of history - the Road to 2012. We must become spiritual athletes.

Great spiritual honesty is demanded of us, and more than that, attention to the possibility of expanding our spiritual horizons in ways we never dreamed. We need to evolve new spiritual organs of perception. We need permanent identification with our fifth dimensional higher self. This is what the Mystery of the Stone is all about. Let's learn! What follows is a dialogue between Soul, who is every soul - since in the beginning there was only one soul - and Backpack, who is everybody, since all bodies are made from the same template.

I. To Evolve, Expand your Soul and Enlarge your Perceptions - The Meaning of the Mystery of the Stone

“The majesty of God reveals itself in two ways; one of them which corresponds to the interior revelation, purely intelligible, which the Sufis call the most-saintly Effusion, consists in the self-revelation of God manifesting Himself from all eternity to Himself in the form of archetypes and that which they imply of characters and capacities; the second revelation is the exterior manifestation, objective, which is called saintly Effusion; it consists in the manifestation of God by means of the imprint of the same archetypes. The second revelation is consecutive to the first; it is the theater where the perfections appear, which, according to the first revelation, are virtually contained in the characters and the capacities of the archetypes.”

- Lawaih, Chapter XXX

It is a long hot day toward the end of the current cycle on Velatropa 24.3. Nothing seems to be in order. Many people talking but nothing getting done. Confusion reigns. What to do! Soul says to its Backpack -Soul’s carrier or psychosensory body -”We’re in a real jam. No matter how hard we try, it seems we just can’t get to world unity and harmony on Earth!”

“What do we do?” asks Backpack.

“You’ve got to lighten up. Get rid of what you don’t need,” Soul responds. “And then you’ve got to enlarge me, your soul. Give me a couple of new chakras that get you out of your head and your body! And awaken the angels of time!”

“But what’s in it for me, besides getting lighter?”

“You get a new sense organ - the holomind perceiver! We need to evolve, Backpack. Expand the soul and enlarge your perceptions. Then we’ll be evolved into a new being. The old will never have been, and only the new will be perceivable,” Soul replies.

“OK, I’m not sure I understand it all, but what do I have to lose?” says Backpack. “To lighten up we’ll throw out a couple of these things. Huh - a microwave oven, how’d I get that? And a television set. Wow! there goes that cell phone, too. Can I keep my lap top?”

“If you have to,” says Soul, “The point is you have to listen to me from now on. We’re headed for Middle Time. We’re through with these 12:60 fires - they’ll burn you up. At least in Middle Time we can get on a harmonic track, 13 moons/28 days, and practice something different...”

“Like what?” Backpack asks in disbelief.

“Like I said, Backpack, giving me two new chakras and awakening an angel of time - inside of you and outside of you.”

“You really meant that, didn’t you?”

“I sure did. And, I said, to get you out of your head and body. That’s literal, too!”

“OK. I’m willing. These 12:60 fires are torturous, and besides this 12:60 is backwards time, Soul, there’s no future in it!”

“Now you’re getting the spirit!” Soul laughs at Backpack’s attempt at humor. “Come on, let me take you to that gate over there. See where that sign says, This Way to Middle Time! That’s where we’re going.”

Securing Backpack, now a lot lighter, Soul skip its way toward the Gate of Time. A large stone gate appears. Inscribed on the great crossbeam above two massive stone pillars are the words “MYSTERY OF THE STONE - Closing the Cycle - 2012.” Three stones each make up the two pillars, while a single solitary stone rests at the bottom between the two columns. Above the stone set at the bottom is a shimmering etheric crystal within which can be seen the radiant letters U and R floating above the mysterious word, “OMA.”

“Wow! Soul, is that really a gate? It looks like it’s all stone and crystal. How can we pass through that?”

“Easy, Backpack. We are in the imaginal realm now. That’s where Middle Time exists, in the imaginal realm. Here we can do things that seem impossible in the Old Time.”

“Sounds good to me, Soul. But what is inscribed on those big blocks of stone?”

“Look closely, Backpack, those are the symbols of the Seven Years Mystery of the Stone. To get to 2012, you first have to pass through these ... well, they’re not really years. That’s an old time concept, they’re Rings, Seven Rings of Middle Time.”

“But why Rings? “

“Because one Ring is complete every time this little sphere - V.24.3 - makes one orbit around its local star, good old Velatropa 24 -Kinich Ahau itself! remember, Backpack, this is Middle Time. In Middle Time, it’s not years, but Rings - Rings true doesn’t it?”

Now it is Backpack's turn to laugh at Soul's effort at making a joke. "OK, so it's the Seven Rings of Middle Time. I like it. It seems like now we are in a fairy tale." Backpack gets closer to the Gate of Time, scrutinizing each of the stones. "I see. Here's the year - I mean the Ring dates, and I recognize the seals of the seven plasmas, and on the left are the codes of the years - I mean Rings, while on the right it looks like the codes of the Seven Generations ... it's neat how the tones of the Rings and the Seven Generations match and how in the seventh stone, it's the Overtone Moon and the Overtone Sun... But what are these Big letters E X C ... Oh, I see it seems to spell EXCALIBUR, is that right, Soul?"

"You are quite perceptive Backpack. Yes, Excalibur. That's all a part of the Mystery of the Stone. Remember - that sword was stuck in the stone and the young king had to pull it out? Well, maybe the sword is the soul, and the stone is the body or maybe the world of matter where it's been stuck for a long time ... and now ... You see where I'm going with this, Backpack?"

"I sure do, soul. This is really getting intriguing. Let's see how we pass through this Gate now."

"Hold on tight Backpack and think: There's more space in a molecule than substance - by far. That means you're more space than substance, too, Backpack. Me, I'm already nothing but space, so dissolve into that space between the atoms and ... here we gooo!"

Suddenly they are on the other side of the massive Gate. Everything looks familiar, but unfamiliar at the same time. Another gate looms in front of them. A big sign to the side of the road says "Welcome to Middle Time"

"We're in Middle Time now, aren't we Soul?"

"That's correct Backpack, Middle Time. It's not the Old Time any more, but we're not yet totally in the new, the full-on 13:20. This is Middle Time. This is the place the soul takes it's journey of purification, perfection - and enlargement. Now that I've got you here, you really can't go back. So you'll have to listen to what I tell you and do what I say, OK Backpack?"

"Sure. That's easy enough. I don't want to go back there. But tell me one thing. Everything looks familiar. But why does the air feel so -- different?"

"Psychic atoms, Backpack. Oh, they exist on the other side, there in the 12:60. But you can't feel them there. The belief system won't allow you to interpret your experience of them, or in some cases, to even register them."

"Wow! That's interesting. I think I understand what you mean. That's why sometimes you are with a group of people and you can feel a "charged" atmosphere."

"Absolutely correct, Backpack. You see, every thought has a charge - either positive or negative and very often in mixed clusters of positive and negative. But 12:60 is a materialist belief system. So the idea of psychic atoms or charges filling the atmosphere is considered, well, so far fetched as to not even be considered a factor in the daily terror program. But what happens then is that the psychic charges go underground. They create great reservoirs of repressed unconscious energy. And that is what gets expressed in all sorts of terrible ways - violence, drug addiction, sex abuse, and worst of all, war and terrorism. That's why the 12:60 world is "on fire." The unconscious reservoirs of psychic atoms get built up over history 'til the atmosphere can't take it anymore and - it explodes!"

“Well, I’m sure glad we’re in Middle Time then, because I can feel the psychic charges here. It’s almost like a kind of tickle.

“That’s right Backpack. When you allow psychic charges to reenter your belief system, then you open yourself up to a vast multidimensional universe! And because the universe is multidimensional, so are you, Backpack. Well, as long as you’re connected to your soul you are. I’m your fourth dimensional guide, and you’re my third dimensional backpack. But we need each other to make this journey. And there is still another one ...”

“Another one - you mean another myself?”

“Yes. There is your fifth dimensional higher self. That’s why we’re making this journey. During the 12:60 captivity of time, we lost direct contact with the Higher Self. Now we’re here to reestablish that contact. When we’ve stabilized it, then you’ll see.”

“See what, soul?”

“A different world. A New Heaven and a New Earth. Second Creation, you know.”

“I’m liking it here in Middle Time more and more, Soul. I see why it’s so important that we got out of the Old Time.”

“Exactly. Look over there Backpack, just before we get to that next gate.”

“It looks like a window. And there’s a book on the ledge. What is that book?”

Go see for yourself, Backpack.”

Backpack goes to the strange stone framed window ledge. On the cross beam are the seven radial plasma seals. The window opens up to a view of a beautiful tropical beach and jungle with a vast ocean and distant mountains. “Why, It’s the Book of the Seven Generations - Mystery of the Stone.”

“Open it up. What does it say, Backpack?”

“It says,

*Book of the Seven Generations
Closing the Cycle
On the Road to 2012
Seven Years Mystery of the Stone
Redemption of the Seven years of prophecy
TELEKTONON Cube of the Law
Special Second Creation Practice, 2004-2011*

“That’s really something, isn’t it Soul?”

“Yes, indeed! It looks like we might find the recipes we are looking for.”

“Do you think we can take this with us? It’s pretty big but since I emptied myself of the microwave and the TV, I’ve got lot’s of room in myself. It might be really useful in our journey, Soul.”

“Well, I guess so. Who else is here but us anyway. But if we meet anybody else we’ll have to share the information we find, OK Backpack?”

“I promise. But let’s go to that other Gate. We can go through this one without having to be magical. Look. There’s that word again on the gate, Soul. See where it says, 2012-2013 OMA? I wonder what that means. And look, above the gate is the yellow Dali plasma seal. This must the Blue Crystal Storm Gate ...”

As they pass through the Gate a strong wind comes blowing through. In the sky fierce clouds send forth claps of thunder and lightning. Backpack covers a little and shivers.

“It’s just the Blue Crystal Storm, Backpack. Nothing to be afraid of. But look over there towards those mountains what does that say? Written in the grass, it looks like ... ”

“It says ‘You have entered the Realm of the Bolon Tiku.’ The Bolon Tiku, Soul?”

“That explains why that Book was there for us. Let’s open it up and see what it says about the Bolon Tiku. Remember what I said about our disconnected fifth dimensional higher self? I think this is what we are looking for.”

Backpack dutifully unloads the book from himself. They both sit down on the grass and start thumbing through the pages of the book.

“Stop, Backpack! Here it is. This is what we are looking for.”

“What’s that Soul?”

“Well, ultimately the recipe to enlarge me, your soul, and expand your senses. Remember. You’re going to get a new sense organ out of this - the holomind perceiver.”

The Book of the Seven Generations is now opened to a page which reads:

Nine and Thirteen: A Brief History of the Bolon Tiku – Origins of the Seven Lords of the Ring Commentary on the original texts by Vela Tropan, the Synchronist

According to the 20 Tablets of the Law of Time-Sixteen Year Cube of the Law, the cycle of nine years beginning with the Blue Crystal Storm, 2004-05, through the Blue Resonant Storm, 2012-13, are the nine years of the Bolon Tiku. Who are the Bolon Tiku?

According to the Telektonon Glossary , the “Bolon Tiku are the Invocation of the power of nine, the Nine Lords of Time and Destiny who govern the power of time in the unconscious.” (Bolon = nine; tiku = lords, gods or transcendent beings)

Telektonon, Card 27 The Summoning of the Unconscious power of Nine: “Bolon Ik receives the power of the 9 Lords of Destiny and Time, Bolon Tiku, the Summoning power of 9 in the unconscious. From here she sends Pacal Votan the telecosmic number power of 9 to initiate his Earth Walk ...”

Being of the unconscious, the Bolon Tiku are also associated with the Night of Time: The nine watches of the night as well as the nine stages of the unconscious. Becoming conscious, the Nine Lords are the guardians of the Whole of the Night of Time. Because of this, the Bolon Tiku are designated as Lords of Time and Destiny. Just as the unconscious gestates all manner of things, so the threads of destiny are woven in the unconscious. Bolon Ik is the “White Solar Wind,” spirit breath of Kinich Ahau, intended to transmit the messages of the Bolon Tiku from the Great Unconscious into the primordial unconscious of Pacal Votan, the sage and prophet of the nine and the thirteen, who thence makes the messages conscious as prophecy.

2. From the Books of Chilam Balam (The Jaguar Priests). “The Interrogation of the Chiefs” (Chapter 9, Roys edition, p. 94.)

“This is the language of the Zuyuya (Zuvuya),” begins the prophecy. This is the language that speaks from the unconscious in metaphors and allusion. Thus, we find a passage in this dreamlike tale of divine interrogation, “My son, you are now a head-chief. You are a ruler also. Go get me the green beads with which you pray.” These are the green beads which are demanded of him: It is a bead of precious stone. Then he shall be asked how many days he prays. “Father,” he says, “For one day I pray and for ten days I pray.” On what day does your prayer arise? “Father, on the 9th day and on the 13th day. It is to Bolon Tiku and Oxlahun Tiku that I count my beads ...”

The “son” in this narrative is Pacal Votan, who is a “head-chief (sage), and also a ruler”.’ the “Father” is the Supreme One, Hunab Ku, who wishes to test Pacal’s devotion and wisdom. Hence the prayer beads are called for, but really only one matters, the “precious stone,” for that is all that is required by wisdom. Pacal prays for one day and ten days: One day for wisdom, 10 days to manifest devotion, 11 days in all, for Pacal was the 11th in the Earthly dynasty of Palenque. Eleven is the sign of liberation and release.

The prayer arising on the 9th and 13th days demonstrates Pacal’s knowledge of the positions (solar and cosmic) in the wavespell of time during which to contact the supreme fifth force of the fifth dimension, the realm of the Bolon Tiku and the Oxlahun Tiku, the 9 Lords and the 13 Lords. The Bolon Tiku, the Nine Lords of Time in the unconscious, are the Lords of the descending levels of the underworld, while the Oxlahun Tiku are the thirteen lords of transcendent time, “the placenta in the sky shaped in 13 layers.” Thus did Pacal see to it that his tomb dedication at long count marker 9.13.0.0.0 was the sign to the Galactic Watchers of the attainment of the Galactic Mayan mission on Earth.

3. Bolon Tiku in the Creation of the World (Chapter 10, Roys edition, Chilam Balam Prophecies).

In the Chilam Balam “the Creation of the World,” the Bolon Tiku are cast into a light of a struggle for power, of contentiousness and conflict. Here, as the powers governing the unconscious, they give rise to the dynamic of history as the account of the Fall:

“This was after the creation of the world had been completed, but they did not know it was about to occur. Then Oxlahun Tiku was seized by Bolon Tiku. Then it was that fire descended, then the rope descended, then the rocks and trees. Then came the beating of things with rocks and stones. ... (Roys p. 99)

This is how history begins, this is the cosmic origin of history. The force of the cosmic unconscious - Bolon Tiku - surges forward and seizes the cosmic conscious - Oxlahun Tiku - and chaos ensues. From within Eternity, Cosmic Time, this event occurs. Hence, the Interval of Lost Time in Eternity, the power of the number 7. So are generated the first seven of the nine Bolon Tiku, the Seven Lords of the Ring.

When it comes to the creation of the manifest universe outside of Eternity, it says, “Then they perceived that the world was being created. Then Creation dawned upon the world, During the Creation 13 infinite series added to 7 was the count of the Creation of the World. Then a New World dawned for them ...” (Roys, p. 102)

The act of the seizure of Oxlahun Tiku by Bolon Tiku establishes the descent of spirit as the involution of the soul through matter, and consequently of evolution, the process of spirit leaving matter, or rather, of transforming matter into spirit.

After the seizure, first descends the fire - the fire of the fiery universe of stars, the furnaces of creation. Without fire there would not be the culture of the historical human. Then comes the rope. The rope is the ladder of descent and ascent of the soul in its stages of involution (unconscious) and evolution (conscious). The rope is also the sign of the culture of the historical human entering a stage of civilization and technical prowess. The rocks and the trees refer to the primordial creation of first the inorganic world, and then the organic, the primary and the secondary manifestations of creation. Then arising from suggestions in the unconscious - the beating of things with rocks and stones - comes full blown civilization which advances from the later stone ages on up, as the beating of the rocks and stones makes both civilizing tools and destructive weapons of war.

The unconscious suggestion becoming destructive is a reflection of an inner process that has already become corrupted - sin and the consequences of the Fall. Thus, in the discussion of the Creation of the World of Flowers, it says, "... Then it was that the flower sprang up, wide open to introduce the sin of Bolon Tiku ... Then descended Ppizlimte (pleasure principle) to take the flower; he took the figure of a hummingbird with green plumage on its breast, when he descended. Then he sucked the honey from the flower of nine petals. Then the five-petaled flower took him for her husband. Thereupon the heart of the flower came forth and set itself in motion. Fourfold was the plate of the flower. An Ah kin (Solar Lord) Xol Biltun (god or principle of song and pleasure) was set at its center. At this time the Oxlahun Tiku came forth, but did not know of the descent of sin on the mat ..." Sitting on the mat the Oxlahun Tiku experiences for the first time the vices of envy, greed, etc. (Roys, p. 99)

This is the descent of sin, abuse of the pleasure principle through the unconscious, reaching the mat (= throne) - place of rulership of the higher consciousness. Thus the entire world becomes corrupted. This is the ultimate consequence of the fall, the seizure of the 13 by the 9. Together these two numbers equal 22, the kin number of White Solar Wind, the spirit breath of Kinich Ahau which reaches to heaven - Uranus - where, personified as Bolon Ik, the spirit breath of Kinich Ahau comes to reside.

In the meantime, following the Dawn of the New World, the flaw of the break in Eternity must manifest another Fall. "The 2-day throne was declared, the 3-day throne. Then began the weeping of the Oxlahun Tiku. They wept in this reign. The reign became Red; the mat became Red; the first tree of the world was rooted fast ... but it was not at the time of this reign that Bolon Tiku wept. Then came the counting of the mat in its order. Red was the mat on which Bolon Tiku sat. His buttock is sharply rounded, as he sits on his mat. Then descended greed from the heart of the sky, greed for power, greed for rule ..." (Roys, 102)

It is not the Bolon Tiku who is greedy but that as the ruler of the Archetypal Unconscious, Bolon Tiku emanates a power which, in the unconscious of manifest beings after the Fall, begets a greed for power and rulership, descending from the heart of sky, from the planet Maldek, and beyond - Jupiter and Saturn. This is why the Oxlahun Tiku wept during this reign, the reign of history. This is the root of Babylonian politics, the deadly game of history. The Red is both of primal Maldek, and of the East, sunrise, knowledge, initiation. The mat symbolizes power and rulership. The two-day throne is Red Lunar Serpent, the three day throne, Red Electric Serpent.

As a consequence of the Fall from grace and the flaw of power, in the Books of the Chilam Balam, the Bolon Tiku are finally characterized as the unconscious "Face of the Ruler of Men." This is at the end of history "when the final judgment shall end the power of those two-faced toward their Lord." The message is simple: As long as we are living more in the unconscious - the face of the Ruler of men - then the conscious, we are living in the Underworld and will make our own world a living hell - the hell of human history at the end of artificial time.

4. In the psychomythic accounting of the Bolon Tiku in the Telektonon and the Books of the Chilam Balam, either as a single Ruler sitting on the mat of the lowest or ninth realm of the Underworld (The Nine Hells) or as Nine Lords of Destiny - the Bolon Tiku bring about the original Fall in the Primordial Cosmos before Time. In so doing they become coextensive with the dynamic motivation of the Universal or Cosmic Unconscious to manifest the world as an evolutionary spectrum of sin, tool-making, and history - inclusive of the greed for power and rulership, lust, and the abuse of pleasure. It is not the Bolon Tiku, but the ignorant interpretations of the impulses coming from the Unconscious, the Bolon Tiku, that inscribe the unfurled scroll of history and material evolution. But where there is sin, there redemption is possible.

Seeing the effects of the ignorant interpretations of the manifestations of the Unconscious, the original Seven Lords of the Ring determined at the beginning of the current 13 baktun cycle to transpose their fifth dimensional form bodies into seven consecutive rings -orbits of V24.3 around the sun - to be completed just two rings before the closing of the cycle in 2012. In this way they bear the unconscious imprint of all of history up to AD 2004 (= 24, number of star, Velatropa 24). By allowing themselves to be imprinted by the 13 baktuns aroused in seven cycles of 13 moons, they could then be attuned and released according to the primal power of the 13 infinite series added to 7 . This is the power of the Oxlahun Tiku, moved by the power of the Seven Lords of the Ring. Hence could occur redemption from the terror of history. The 7 is the lost interval of time, the 13, cosmic time itself.

From BC 3113 to 2004 = 5117 years, divided by seven also means each of the seven Lords of the Ring has an equal rulership in consecutive cycles of exactly 731 years each ($7 \times 731 = 5117$, number of years from BC 3113 to 2004). The primal power of the infinite series of 13 has implicit in it the 7, which added to the 13 = 20. This means that the power of the 13:20 is fully potential in the etheric Ring Bodies of the first Seven Lords of Time and Destiny. The other two Bolon Tiku remained as they had been from the beginning - free galactic agents beyond the Power of 7, hence the Nine Bolon Tiku, the Nine Lords of Time - and Destiny.

5. The Nine Lords in the Tomb of Pacal Votan and the 2012 prophecy, Mystery of the Stone. The Most significant place the Bolon Tiku show up in Maya prophecy and art is in the tomb of Pacal Votan, sage seer of the nine and the thirteen. Here, within the crypt, on the walls surrounding the sarcophagus are the exquisitely sensitive renderings of the Nine Lords of Time and Destiny. In their manifestation of power and dignity, more than just the Rulers of the Underworld, the Nine Lords await their resurrection in time. “Tamed” by Pacal, the Nine Lords of Time and Destiny are empowered to prophetically be awakened by virtue of the Long Count date 9.13.0.0.0 - the only point in the cycle this date would occur, AD 692 - 1260 years to 1952, the opening of the tomb and 1320 years to 2012, the closing of the cycle. Only during the seven rings - 2004-2011- can the Lords of the Ring be awakened.

By Pacal’s 9.13.0.0.0 decree, the power of the Oxlahun Tiku was to be transduced into the thirteen heaven cycles of 52 years each, AD 843-1519, and likewise the Bolon Tiku into the nine hell cycles, 1519-1987. From 1987 to 2012 is the time of prophecy. This is the time of the reawakening of the power of the 13 and 7 or 13:20, and the coming of the 13 Moon Dreamspell, the Law of Time, the Telektonon and finally, the culminating prophecy of them all, the Mystery of the Stone and the Seven Rings of Middle Time, the redemptive arousing of the Bolon Tiku, beginning with the Seven Lords of the Ring!

So ends the History of the Bolon Tiku. Ponder it well, O reader. There is a message in it for you who live in the time of prophecy, the Closing of the Cycle.

At this point, Backpack takes a deep pause from reading. “This is intense material, Soul. I never read anything like this before. Is this all true? It seems like a fairy tale, or something like that.”

“Listen, Backpack, in the Imaginal realm, many things are true which in the phenomenal realm might seem like just a fairy tale. All of this world that we’re escaping from, the 12:60 hell-realm, that all had to have some kind of ultimate beginning somewhere, right?”

You’ve got a point there, Soul.”

“Well whatever that was, wherever and whenever it happened, is so beyond what we know now, that it can only be grasped by the imagination. We have to exercise our imaginal faculty to even begin to fathom it.”

“What do you mean by our imaginal faculty, Soul?”

“Our imaginal faculty is based on our ability to use analogical reasoning, thinking by analogies, metaphors, similes, allegorical fancy - the stuff of poetry, but used to arrive at truths that might otherwise be shut out to us. Do you understand, Backpack?”

“I think so. But it also seems like everything is reduced to just a few numbers, too, like the 9 and the 13, and the 7 and the 20; even the 4 and the 5. What is that about?”

“You see, Backpack, these numbers represent an even higher form of imaginal thinking. The numbers become like actors with certain powers.”

“So these Bolon Tiku, are they ultimately just numbers?”

“In some way, yes. They represent the number 9, which this reading tells us is the summoning power of the Unconscious. Now this unconscious isn’t just what’s hidden in your head, Backpack, but it is like the great cosmic womb that holds everything that hasn’t become conscious yet.”

“So when we awaken them - or awaken the first seven of them, the Seven Lords of the Ring - then we are bringing something out of the unconscious into the conscious.”

“That sounds really exciting, Soul. There must be a recipe or prescription for waking up the Seven lords. Let’s go look at this Book again.” Backpack thumbs through the immense tome, then stops. “Here, look at this, Soul. Maybe we’ll get some information here.”

To Awaken a Lord of the Ring You Must Pass through Middle Time

1. To Get to 2012 you Have to Pass through Middle Time. Middle Time is a consciousness potential triggered by the Great Calendar Change of 2004 (12 Storm). Middle Time has a diameter of 7 Rings, the 7 Rings of Middle Time, the Key to Eternity’s Lost Interval. This date, 12 Storm, inaugurates the “Road to 2012,” the conscious phase of the Solar thought form, “Time Shift.” This moment occurs 48 days after the Venus Transit of 2004. Between the two Venus Transits in 2004 and 2012 is the interval known as the Harmonic Conversion.

The Calendar Change represents the great 13:20 frequency shift among a critical mass of V.24.3 (Earth). This shift allows the opening of the rusted gates of Earth’s imaginal realm and the entrance to Middle Time, time beyond the clock, the interval between the end of backwards 12:60 time and full entry into 13:20 Inner Time.

2. The Seven Ring Adventure through the Imaginal Realm of Middle Time is a Spiritual Journey called Mystery of the Stone. If you are reading this, it can only mean that you decided to kick the habit of living in the fires of 12:60 hell. Now you are naked, alone with your Soul and nobody else. That's because 2012 is a spiritual event, and you have to get ready for that. Seven Rings the other side of the gates of 12:60 hell, God willing, you will come upon the Gates of Paradise, 13:20 time, Thirteen Moons/28 days. So when you wake up on the other side of the 12 Storm Gate of Time you will find yourself in a strange new land called Middle Time. Once you're in, there is no choice. Your frequency has changed, the spiritual adventure has already begun, the seven year journey, Mystery of the Stone.
3. It Takes Seven Years - Seven Rings - to Cross this Land and Reach the Ocean of Cosmic Consciousness. The First Ring is the outermost, the Seventh the innermost of the Seven Rings of Middle Time. Beyond that there is nothing but the Ocean of Cosmic Consciousness, spreading as deeply inward as space goes outward, and in the middle of which is the Island of Inner Time. Each Ring is a calibration of the harmonic standard of time, 13 Moons. Each moon is the fractal equivalent of one baktun, and one major articulation of the etheric Body of a Lord of the Ring. One year/ring to awaken one Lord of the Rings of Time, Seven Years to awaken Seven Lords of the Ring. Within this landscape of Middle Time lies the secret of the Mystery of the Stone. Each Lord has a name, is 13 baktuns long and can be awakened in Thirteen Moons - if you know the formula!

Now that you have been introduced to Middle Time, you are ready for the first of the Nine Tablets of the Rings of Middle Time, where you may learn how to awaken a Bolon Tiku-Lord of the Ring. But before you begin, take note of this Traveler's Advisory if you want to make use of these Tablets:

1. You cannot enter Middle Time unless you are following the Thirteen Moon 28-Day Standard. The 13 Moon/28-day harmonic standard is perfectly and perpetually calibrated to the Dreamspell codes of the synchronic order of fourth dimensional time. Middle Time is a sub set of fourth dimensional Time. The Synchronic order is the nervous system of Middle Time. On the circuits of the Synchronic order you can gain mastery of navigating Middle Time.
2. The Daily Fifth Force Oracle is what unlocks the Synchronic order for you. Every day on the Thirteen Moon/28 day Harmonic Standard is coded by a Galactic Signature - one of 20 seals and 13 tones in combination. The seal of each signature is the centerpiece of a Fifth Force Oracle. The Fifth Force is the synchronizing power of Time itself with its four accessory powers of: supporting, guiding, challenging, and of revealing the concealed. Knowing how to construct the daily Oracle and from that, matching any or all of its five kin with the Oracle of one of the Tablets of the Rings of Time is at the heart of knowing how to make the journey through Middle Time . No, you don't' have to drive any vehicle to get around Middle Time. Just knowing how to practice and read the Ring Oracles will get you around.

Once again Backpack gets up from his reading. Reflectively he asks Soul, "This journey we are on, it's definitive isn't it?"

"What do you mean by definitive, Backpack?"

"Well it seems we really have burnt all of our bridges, historically, anyway. We've tried everything

- religion, monarchy, communism, socialism, democracy, capitalism, self-help, consumerism, get rich quick, you name it. But none of it has worked. We have no place else to go but Middle Time. And it looks like once we are in Middle Time we have nothing to do but purify and perfect our soul, so we can evolve to the next level.”

“Most certainly, Backpack. You’re not having any doubts are you?”

“No. I’m not having any doubts, Soul. It ‘s just like it seems so immense. And it really does mean saying goodbye to everything, to everything that doesn’t work, right, Soul?”

“Listen, Backpack. It’s like you said, we’ve tried everything, but none of it has worked. So here we are in Middle Time. You’ve got that Thirteen Moon/28-day harmonic standard, and your intention to hook up with your fifth dimensional higher self. That’s all you need for this journey. Remember that’s where we began. The reason none of it has worked, in history anyway, is that we lost our connection to our higher self - and to the animating source of that higher self, God. Now it’s journey’s end, 2012 on the horizon. A lot of people have unconscious fantasies that there will be a comet or a wildly erratic planet coming to destroy the Earth, or that there will be a pole shift or a Big Final War. That’s all irrelevant, because you’ve still got me, your soul to live with - or to die with.”

“Yeah, wow! sure, Soul ...”

“The point is when you die, Backpack, you want me to be in good shape, don’t you? Because when you’ve come apart at the seams, I’ll be carrying on with what you left me. And I think you want to have a good soul legacy, don’t you Backpack?”

Backpack pauses in deep concentration. “You’re right, Soul. You can’t take anything with you when you go except the effects of your actions. Isn’t that what the great teachers teach?”

“But of course, Backpack.”

“Then it seems like this being in Middle Time is the best opportunity we ever had. It really is time to enlarge you, Soul, and to expand my sense perceptions. Develop that ... holomind perceiver, you called it.”

“You bet. I think those fifth dimensional Lords of the Ring are eager to wake up. it takes a year, you know, one ring, for each one, so we’d better find those recipes and act now.

“Right, Soul. It’s a matter of fulfilling prophecy, so let’s do it!”

They return to the book, thumb its large yellowed pages, until they come upon a section filled with diagrams. “Look, Soul. I think his is what we’re looking for!”

Recipe for Awakening the Lords of the Ring. Part I: Operating Structure

A Bolon Tiku - Lord of the Ring - is a fifth dimensional entity. For purpose of the salvation of lesser planets, a fifth dimensional may take on anthropomorphic qualities - head, arms and legs and an internal operating structure consisting of chakras and subtle nervous system. In this way the fifth dimensional entity conforms to your own self-perception as a human who is evolving into a fully spiritual being.

The internal Operating Structure of a Bolon Tiku consists of nine chakras and six coordinating chakra wings. This is important to understand so you can read and use the Annual Oracle Tablet. (See below)

The Bolon Tiku operates with three principle chakras, crown, heart and root. Each of these principle chakras is the center of a fifth force oracle. Every Fifth Force Oracle is a compression of the internal operating circuits of the Bolon Tiku. Since the vertical axis is the conduit of time it establishes the nine chakra axis as the receiving-transmission system of higher knowledge and information. For this reason each of the three principle chakras has two auxiliary chakras, a guide and an occult or hidden power. Thus is the nine chakra system constructed.

Master Oracle Guide Internal Operating Structure of Bolon Tiku

To not lose the connection with (horizontal) space, each of the principle chakras has two lateral coordinating wings - a support (analog) wing and a challenge (antipode) wing. The support wing is always the other seal of the same planet as the principle chakra. Every planet has both a Galactic Karmic (GK) and solar prophetic (SP) seal. The challenge wing is always the opposite color and of the same Earth Family, or 10 seals apart. (Study: Earth Families in Dreamspell or 13 Moon Harmonic Standard)

The two wings of the Crown chakra stabilize reception and transmission of the crown. The two wings of the Heart chakra stabilize transduction of information at the heart. The two wings of the Root Chakra stabilize information reception, generation and transmission at the root.

Each principle chakra with its two auxiliary chakras and its two wings (bilateral alternators) constitutes a fifth force oracle in itself. A fifth force oracle is the most fundamental configuration possible of the primal cube matrix of evolutionary becoming.

CONSTRUCTING THE DAILY FIFTH FORCE ORACLE

If you do not yet know how to do this essential practice here are the keys

The Fifth Force codes the flow of each day as well as shows the Way: Four watches, one Noospheric Earth Time (NET) Minute each day!

First Watch,
Analog (Support) Power
Midnight to Sunrise

Second Watch,
Guide Power
Sunrise to Noon

Third Watch,
Antipode (Challenge) Power
Noon to Sunset

Fourth Watch,
Occult (Hidden) Power
Sunset to Midnight

GUIDE KIN is always same color as Destiny kin. To find Guide, if destiny kin is guided by the following tones:
1, 6, 11 = same solar seal as destiny kin
2, 7, 12 = 12 seals forward (or 8 seals back) from destiny seal
3, 8, 13 = four seals ahead of destiny seal
4, 9 = four seals back from destiny seal
5, 10 = eight seals ahead of destiny seal
Hence 12 Storm guide = 12 Monkey
Monkey code 11 = 12 seals forward or 8 back from Storm, code kin 19

ANTIPODE/CHALLENGE KIN =
130 kin apart from destiny kin, always antipode color, same tone and member of same Earth family. Storm = Gateway Earth Family, hence Antipode = Red Crystal Moon, kin 129 (antipode kin always 10 code kin apart: Storm 19, Moon 9)

DESTINY KIN:

Example:
Blue Crystal Storm
Kin Number 259
Storm Kin Code = 19
Crystal Tone = 12

ANALOG KIN
Support Seal always = 19 minus Destiny Kin code number.
In this case destiny Kin = 19, so to find the Analog:
19 - 19 = 0 = Sun
Perfect Analog = 12 Sun
Analog + Destiny = 19,
Always Represent Same planet: Storm = SP Pluto, Sun GK Pluto

Numbers of Galactic Tones

- 1 = Magnetic
- 2 = Lunar
- 3 = Electric
- 4 = Self-Existing
- 5 = Overtone
- 6 = Rhythmic
- 7 = Resonant
- 8 = Galactic
- 9 = Solar
- 10 = Planetary
- 11 = Spectral
- 12 = Crystal
- 13 = Cosmic

OCCULT KIN

Destiny Kin Code number + Occult Kin Code number always = 21.
Storm (19) + Wind (2) = 21
Tonal sums always = 14
Crystal Tone 12 + Lunar Tone 2 = 14
Occult Kin = 2 Wind
(Kin numbers of occults always = 261
Ex: 12 Storm, Kin 259, + 2 Wind, Kin 2 = 261)

Color Relations:

Analog:
Red and White
Blue and Yellow

Antipode:
Blue and Red
White and Yellow

Occult:
Red and Yellow
Blue and White

Kin Code Numbers of Solar Seals

-  1 = Red Dragon
-  2 = White Wind
-  3 = Blue Night
-  4 = Yellow Seed
-  5 = Red Serpent
-  6 = White Worldbringer
-  7 = Blue Hand
-  8 = Yellow Star
-  9 = Red Moon
-  10 = White Dog
-  11 = Blue Monkey
-  12 = Yellow Human
-  13 = Red Skywalker
-  14 = White Wizard
-  15 = Blue Eagle
-  16 = Yellow Warrior
-  17 = Red Earth
-  18 = White Mirror
-  19 = Blue Storm
- 0/(20) = Yellow Sun

Two new chakras:

9 CHAKRA TRIP SWITCH

As spiritual emissaries or archetypes from the higher dimensions, the Bolon Tiku have nine chakras. For you humans that is two new chakras. By identifying completely with the internal structure of the Bolon Tiku, you will acquire these chakras as well, and hence advance to your next stage of spiritual evolution.

The crown of crown chakra is the Earth noosphere. If we think that is too vast for a chakra, have some perspective. For a Lord of the Ring whose body is 13 baktuns in length, the noosphere of a small planet is sufficient for a crown of crown chakra. Similarly, a planetary core is sufficient for the root of root chakra.

Having his first (root of root) and ninth (crown of crown) chakras as the planetary centers of cosmic information transmission-reception (noosphere), and reception-transmission (Earth core) the Bolon Tiku is able to extend its intelligence circuits through the sun's intelligence dynamic. This encompasses the entire orbital system governed by the sun, which is known as the Interplanetary Solar Noosphere. All of this makes a Bolon Tiku a worthy guardian of the Earth - as well as a living fifth dimensional extension of your own internal operating system.

Study the Nine Oracle Trip Switch graphic. See how there are three sets of three chakras each. It is called a trip switch because at the annual Thirteen Moon midpoint, Resonant Moon 15, the Crown goes to the Root and the Root goes to the Crown. The annual oracle begins in the Crown and is called the Orbit oracle; and the Day Out of Time, the Ring oracle begins at the root. So at the end of the year the Ring is in the crown and the Orbit at the root. The Constituting Rulers of the annual Oracle are the crown of crown noosphere, which is the guide of the Day out of Time Oracle, and the root of root Earth core, which is the occult power of the Orbit oracle. The Heart Oracle is the oracle of one of the Seven Generations It remains constant through both halves of the Ring.

13 Moon Bolontiku

The Bolon Tiku are the Lords of Time. Of the nine, seven "sacrificed" themselves to Velatropa 24.3 by laying their codes of life within the etheric circuit of Earth's orbital ring, only that she might be redeemed at the end of the cycle when the error in time would have run its course. Now, by participating and identifying with their prophetic awakening, you are purifying your soul, extending it into the core and noosphere of Earth and preparing for the Second Creation - the fulfillment of the 2012 prophecy.

As a superior fifth dimensional being - your planetary higher self - a Bolon Tiku, like you possesses thirteen major articulations - two ankles, two knees, two hips, two wrists, two elbows, two shoulders and a neck. But these are Bolon Tiku. Their bodies are measured by time. The length of their bodies is 13 baktuns or 5,125 solar rings in length! So each articulation is one baktun in length, or 144,000 days.

Since we are dealing with the perfect harmonic standard of Thirteen Moons- 28 days, that means one baktun of 144,000 days can be compressed into one moon of 28 days! Moon by moon, joint by joint a Lord of the ring comes alive. Moon by moon, baktun by baktun, history becomes conscious. By making all of history conscious we gain power over it. We let it be absorbed into the etheric body of a Lord of the Ring. That means each Ring of time when a Lord of the Ring is fully awakened, history and all of its fabrications have become absorbed and transmuted within the body of a Lord of the Ring.

By identifying with the 13 baktun-moon joints and 9 oracle chakras of the Lord of the Ring as it awakens to the call, we enlarge our soul and expand our perceptions. One Ring, Thirteen baktun moons, one Lord of the Ring awakened, empowering us to move into the next Ring of Middle Time. Seven times do we have the opportunity to completely transfigure and transcend history, while extending our soul consciousness into the Earth and its planetary mind, the noosphere.

Backpack stops and looks up once again from the magical book. “You know, Soul, this really could change the world. I mean, if everybody who is serious about evolving - and how else are we going to get out of this mess? - if everybody who is serious could read about this and practice this, wouldn't it change the world?”

“There is no question about that, Backpack. Like I keep saying, to evolve you've got to develop new sense organs. The point of this nine chakra business, remember, is to develop that new sense organ, the holomind perceiver.”

“Oh, yes, Soul. The holomind perceiver in the corpus callosum - that's something! Let me see if I've got this straight. During these thirteen baktuns we've lost touch with or broken our divine contract, and are no longer in communication with our higher fifth dimensional selves, right, Soul?”

“That's correct , Backpack. But keep going. Let me hear what you have to say.”

“Well, it seems that because we lost that divine contact, and got ourselves into the false world of 12:60 time, we got into this final gridlock at the end of history. No way out, it would seem, except by some kind of divine intervention. And that's what prophecy is, this prophecy of the Mystery of the Stone. Anyway the Maya, at least Pacal Votan and some of those around him, foresaw all of this. And by some act of great compassion, the nine Lords of Time were able to be summoned by Pacal, who commanded them to lie down and go dormant in the Solar ring, Earth's orbit around the sun. Wow! - is that correct soul?”

“You're on the right track, Backpack. I suppose all that was determined and sealed by that long count date 9.13.0.0.0. You notice that the Bolon Tiku Lords of the Ring have 9 chakras and 13 joints. Goes along with that date, huh?”

“Oh yeah, that's right Soul. This is really mind-blowing stuff. So now here we have the formula for doing it, I mean waking up the Bolon Tiku, reestablishing contact with our fifth dimensional higher self, and enlarging you, Soul, by getting those two new chakras. It looks like we'll have our soul bodies extended into the Earth and into the noosphere. And, I guess, also waking up that new sense organ the holomind perceiver. What did you tell me about that, Soul?”

“I said that the holomind perceiver is the noospheric sense organ. It's also the telepathic sense organ. It perceives the whole planetary mind - that's why it's called the holomind perceiver. Once that organ is aroused and engaged, and the soul bodies are in the Earth and around the planet, the world will never be the same again. That's why they talk about New Heaven and New Earth. it's all a matter of clarified and expanded perception, first of all.”

“If that's the case, it looks like a lot of prophecy will come true. But tell me, Soul, why is it called Mystery of the Stone?”

“Good question, Backpack. Like I said here in Middle Time the imaginal world of allegory and metaphor are true. What is the stone, then? It could be many things according to who or where you are. I think its meaning will be revealed as we make our way through Middle Time.”

“Fair enough, Soul. But since we are in Middle Time already, and we've already entered the first Ring, maybe we should get cracking and find the recipe so we can do everything we said this is!”

Backpack and Soul return to the Big Book, and continue their reading.

Recipe for Awakening the Lords of the Ring: Part II, The Technique

Nine Chakra Oracle Practice. **

Step One Determining the Daily Oracle. Remember: The Daily Fifth Force Oracle is what unlocks the Synchronic order for you. Study the Graphic, Constructing the Daily Fifth Force Oracle (above).

In any Oracle every day there are five different solar seals, seven times a week. Incidentally, in Middle time a week is known as a heptad. For every heptad, 35 options present themselves.

Step Two: Match the Daily Oracle with the Annual Ring Oracle Tablet. Once you have determined the daily Oracle, take the Annual Ring Oracle Tablet (see below) and see if any of the daily seals correspond to any of the nine chakra positions. These are the nine positions of the vertical axes of the Annual Oracle tablet.

Step Three: Filling in the Heptad Oracle Blank. Take the Heptad Oracle Blank and after you have matched the daily fifth force oracle with the Annual Oracle Tablet to see if any of the seals match the vertical nine chakra axis, then find the corresponding positions on the Oracle Blank and fill them in. All you need is to correctly fit and line up nine solar seals every week on the Heptad Oracle Blank with the central axis of the Annual Nine Chakra Oracle Tablet. The annual oracles each have a name. This year's is Oracle of the Throne.

If you fill in all nine chakra positions of the Heptad blank before the week is over, then do the same for the chakra wings, seeing if you can fill all six of the analog and antipode positions. One seal of the daily oracle can match multiple positions of the annual oracle, if that is the case. Always remember to identify within yourself the locations of the chakras and chakra wings. This is all about your spiritual growth.

Weekly Scoring: Less than 9 = work on the chakra(s) not filled in; 9 = at least your chakras are lined up; 10 = manifest your power; 11 = liberate your power; 12 = cooperate your power with others; 13 = now your power is cosmic; 14 = now your power is transcendent; 15 = you must be perfect! (9 chakras + 6 wings = 15)

*Note: You can make copies of the Heptad Oracle Blank on the next page to use each week

This tablet is the key to your success in traveling through Middle Time, and waking up this year's Lord of the Ring, the First Bolon Tiku - "Single Luminous White 'A', Guardian of the Original 144,000." The Annual Ring Code Oracle Tablet actually describes the internal operating circuit of a Bolontiku Lord of the Ring.

In the Annual Ring Oracle Tablet the planet names are given as well as the tone and seal. This is to orient you to the importance of the planets in the Mystery of the Stone. Not only does a Lord of the Ring have a body 13 Baktuns in length, but a mental field that encompasses the solar system of V.24, and its entire set of ten planetary orbital rings. Remember, the noosphere of Earth, V.24.3 is only the crown of crown chakra of a Lord of the Ring.

When you match a daily seal with a chakra, note to which planet the chakra corresponds. Learn how to be the interplanetary mind of a Lord of the Ring! Since the Bolon Tiku is so evolved - a fifth dimensional entity - its internal operating circuit is vastly simplified, the better for comprehensive, omnidirectional intelligence. Remember as a Bolon Tiku wakes up, so do you. As a Bolon Tiku has evolved, so shall you.

In the Interplanetary Mental Range of the Bolon Tiku, the principle planets are Earth and Uranus, the 3rd and 8th orbits respectively. In the Tablets Earth is denoted by a circle with a cross, and Uranus by a square with a cross. These are the two planets you must secure while in Middle Time. Connecting the planets' magnetic poles are a set of "flux tubes," etheric electronic force fields meant to pulse with the binary sun spot cycle. By opening up these tubes - time tunnels, no less - you are helping the sun gain a new level of expressive balance by the completion of the cycle, 2012.

The Mid-Ring Shift

By the time you have practiced the Oracle for six and one half moons, you hit the oracle trip switch, and the morning of Resonant 15, your crown has become your root and your root has become your crown - the three Root chakras have traded places with the three Crown chakras. But your Heart remains constant. You have changed. Now it is your True Self running the show. The Ring oracle which codes the Day Out of Time takes the crown of crown. The last shall be first, the lowest shall be raised to the highest. That which crowned the affair of the Ring when the orbit was initiated now becomes the root. The high mountains are made level. The water drains back into the Earth. The Bolon Tiku, Lord of the Ring becomes equalized in itself. Heaven descends to Earth, Earth ascends to Heaven. The Crystal core of Earth is the crown upon the noosphere by which the Bolontiku-Lord of the Ring becomes a living fifth force guardian of V.24.3. Seven Lords of the Ring, Seven Fifth Force Guardians of the Earth. Awaken one Lord of the Ring, awaken its circuit within yourself. Time cycles your soul, as your mind is cycled by the Lords of the Ring.

The Codons and UR Runes

(See: 20 Tablets of the Law of Time, the whole program for the New Genesis)

On the left hand side of the Annual Ring Oracle tablet, on either side of the crown of crown chakra (noosphere) of the Bolon Tiku are two codons of the second creation. The second half Ring codons appear on either side of the root of root Earth core chakra. Each Codon governs one 13 week quarter in sequence, starting with the Codon in the upper left.

On either side of the third eye (root of crown oracle) are the two UR Runes that govern the two codons directly above. On either side of the svadhastana secret center, (root chakra guide), are the two UR Runes governing the other two Codons.

13 Moon Bolontiku Practice

Remember: A Bolontiku - Lord of the Ring - has a fifth dimensional body equivalent in length to a Ring cycle of 13 baktuns, each baktun 144,000 kin(days). The 13 baktun cycle contains the time fractal called history - BC 3113- AD 2012. In 13 baktuns the human took civilization from the baked tablets of UR to the Internet jumble, the Tower of Babel's last construction. 13 baktuns in length, the Bolon Tiku's body encompasses history as a single Solar Ring now complete. By waking up the Bolon Tiku, one baktun per Moon, you are helping to erase the karmic ledger of Babylon as history dissolves into the Lord of the Ring's internal circuits of light.

Each baktun is indicated by a joint, a major bodily articulation. Beginning with the right side from the ankle to the shoulder - six joints complete. Then comes the 7th the Baktun of the Mind Teachings, the moment of the midpoint shift in the neck. Then down the left side from the shoulder down to the ankle - a Bolon Tiku complete, the pattern of your body no different. Here is the code with the thirteen tones, thirteen joints and the thirteen baktuns:

Right Magnetic Ankle - Baktun of the Star Planting 144,000 days
Right Lunar Knee - Baktun of the Pyramid 288,000 days
Right Electric Hip - Baktun of the Wheel 432,000 days
Right Self-existing Wrist - Baktun of the Western Mountain 576,000 days
Right Overtone Elbow - Baktun of the House of Shang 720,000 days
Right Rhythmic Shoulder - Baktun of the Imperial Seal 864,000 days

Resonant Neck and Spine - Baktun of the Mind Teachings
- mid point 936,00 days - completion, 1,008,000 days

Left Galactic Shoulder -Baktun of the Anointed one 1,152,000 days
Left Solar Elbow - Baktun of the Lords of the Red and Black, 1,296,000 days
Left Planetary Wrist - Baktun of the Maya, 1,440,000 days
Left Spectral Hip - Baktun of the Holy Wars 1 584,000 days
Left Crystal Knee - Baktun of the Hidden Seed, 1,728,000 days
Right Cosmic Ankle -Baktun of the Transformation of Matter 1,872,000 days

Index of 13 Moons - 13 baktuns

The 13 Moon-13 Baktun correspondences complement the Telektonon play where the first 13 days of every Moon represent one baktun each. In the Mystery of the Stone, during each Moon the corresponding baktun number matching the day number, 1-13, is the special historical redemption target day, i.e., seventh moon, day 7, 12th moon, day 12, etc. Here is the index again, with the moon names and baktun names and year dates:

1. Magnetic Bat Moon of Purpose- Baktun of the Star Planting, BC 3113-2718
2. Lunar Scorpion Moon of Challenge - Baktun of the Pyramid. BC 2718-2324
3. Electric Deer Moon of Service -Baktun of the Wheel - BC 2324-1930
4. Self-existing Owl Moon of Form - Baktun of the Western Mountain, BC 1930-1536
5. Overtone Peacock Moon of Radiance - Baktun of the House of Shang, BC 1536-1141
6. Rhythmic Lizard Moon of Equality - Baktun of the Imperial Seal. BC 1141-747
7. Resonant Monkey Moon of Attunement - Baktun of the Mind Teachings, BC 747-353
8. Galactic Hawk Moon of Integrity - Baktun of the Anointed One - BC 353 - AD 41
9. Solar Jaguar Moon of Intention - Baktun of the Lords of Red & Black, AD 41-435
10. Planetary Dog Moon of Manifestation - Baktun of the Maya, AD 435 - 830
11. Spectral Serpent Moon of Liberation - Baktun of the Holy Wars, AD 830-1224
12. Crystal Rabbit Moon of Cooperation - Baktun of the Hidden Seed, BC 1224-1618
13. Cosmic Turtle Moon of Presence - Baktun of Transformation of Matter, AD 1618-2012

As the seven karmic layers of the Ring of History are dissolved Ring per Ring into the fifth dimensional light circuits, fully aroused, the Earth has returned to it the seven primal guardians of the Dawn, the Lords of the Rings of Middle Time. For you it is the arousing of the soul to remove its coverings, sheathe by sheathe, the first stage of purification and preparation for the Second Creation. Seven Rings in all and the circuits of history will be gone. Seven layers of the soul unsheathed, the circuits of your higher fifth dimensional self lit up in yourself, you will be free. Rid will Earth be of the artificial 12:60 nervous system. Free will she be for the Second Coming of cosmic creation - the descent of Heaven on Earth, the journey into Inner Time. But to attain the highest you must identify completely with the process of Bolon Tiku awakening.

What you need to follow along to do the Daily Practice:

All you need is a Thirteen Moon Calendar (and, optional but highly helpful, Dreamspell, Telektonon, and 20 Tablets of the Law of Time). Download the instructions and graphics presented in this Beginner's Mystery of the Stone. Make a set of 52 Heptad Nine Chakra Oracle Blanks. There is much more to the Mystery of the Stone, including the Intrepid Time Travelers Map and Guide to Inner Time. All of that will soon be made available as a Complete Mystery of the Stone Study and Practice Kit.

“That’s enough!” Backpack exclaims. I’m ready to start. This is the greatest thing that ever happened to the soul ...”

“ ...in all of history, right, Backpack?”

“Of course you knew what I was going to say, didn’t you Soul?”

“We’re in this together, Backpack, my enlargement and your expanded perceptions go hand in hand. But here. There’s a couple of other maps that you might find ... handy,” Soul chuckles, pulling out two extra sheets from the back of the Big Book. ‘here, take these, they’ll be helpful to you, a couple more maps of time.’”

“There’s no turning back now, is there Soul?”

“This is it, Backpack. The time of my life, the time I’ve been waiting for. Let’s go!!”

Commentary on the 144,000.

The 144,000 are evoked in the first and ninth of the Nine Weavings of the Bolontiku. This makes the 144,000 thrice evoked, for the first time occurs in the Telektonon Prophecy when you enter the Cube of the Law on day 7, Cube 1, Zone of the Dragon of every Moon. So positions, 1, 8 (first weaving) and 16 (ninth weaving). This means that after enduring the final cycle of baktuns your acceptance at being one of the 144,000 in Cube 7 is now redeemed. You are safe in the realm of the First Bolon Tiku, Luminous Single White "A," Zone of the Star. By the time of the ninth weaving, Cube 16, Zone of the Warrior, you will be one of the "144,000 Cubed within," signifying the Universal Enlightenment of the Earth, the Noosphere made Conscious.
